With an original Introductory Essay to each Author,

EDITED BY

THE Rev. RICHD. COTTERMOLE, B. D.
AND
THE Rev. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

Of the approbation with which the Editors are regarded in Sacred Literature. Her greatest Poets and Philosophers have shined with our Divines in adding force and extending the empire of Revelation; and our Divines have been distinguished also by the opulentness and the neatness of their learning.

The sanctuary of character thus given to the standard Theology of England, by the exertions of eminent divines, has been happily preserved from contagion, amid the barrenness of succeeding times. Across the wastes of sceptical and speculative Infidelity, it has been as a well of truth and consolation, accessible to the general reader as to the student.

It is proposed to comprise in this collection, the most celebrated works, which have been devoted to the illustration and practical enforcement of the religion of revealed truth, whether in their connexion with the immortal interests of individuals, or in their tendency and well being of so [illegible] the Doctrines, Morality, [illegible] Constituency, which have received a peculiar stamp of general approbation, and which stand as monuments of the most eminent Divines; the most interesting specimens of Religious Biography, and the choicest examples of Devotional and Sacred Poetry, will succeed in their proper place, which may be judged [illegible] to the benefit and gratification [illegible]

[illegible] selections of each author, or to [illegible] division, as the case may [illegible] will be prefixed an Introductory Essay, [illegible] their characteristic [illegible] in some instances, comprehensive [illegible] biographical sketch of the Author, [illegible] on the state of religion in his [illegible]

The work will be handsomely printed in a Foolscap octavo, on good paper, well pressed, neatly bound in Morocco Cloth, lettered and published in Volumes of about 400 pages each, on the first day of every month.

Price, Three Shillings and Sixpence:

Forming the cheapest series of works ever offered to the public.

The following names of Authors whose works are intended for publication, is submitted in evidence of the impartiality of the selection:—

Jeremy Taylor, Bates, Boyle, Baxter, Owen, Cudworth, Thomas A. PROSPECTUS
OF A
NEW GAZETTEER OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

CONTAINING A COPIOUS DESCRIPTION OF THE States, Territories, Counties, Parishes, Districts, Cities and Towns—Mountains, Lakes, Rivers and Canals—Commerce, Manufactures, Agriculture, and the arts generally, of the United States.

EMBRACING ALSO

The extent, Boundaries, and Natural productions of the principal subdivisions, the Latitude and Longitude of Cities and Towns, with their bearing and distance from important places—and including other interesting and valuable Geographical, Historical, Political, and Statistical information—with the census of 1830, and the Post Offices, from the latest Official List.

BY WILLIAM DARBY, ESQ.
OF MARYLAND.

AUTHOR OF A VIEW OF THE UNITED STATES, &c. &c.

AND

THEODORE DWIGHT, JR. ESQ.
OF NEW YORK.

The importance to the citizens of the United States, of a copious and accurate Gazetteer of our country, will not, it is believed, for a single moment be questioned. Whatever be a man's station in life, whether public or private, he frequently, almost daily, feels the convenience and necessity of such a book of reference. Of similar works, embracing the Universe, it may with truth be said of the most voluminous of them, that they are necessarily brief, and greatly deficient in reference to our own country. This is undeniable—nor can it be otherwise in a work, which in the compass of 800 or 1000 pages, comprises an entire world.

No such work, exclusively devoted to the United States, is now extant. None has ever been produced—and the only one of a similar kind ever issued from the press, was a pocket volume of less than one hundred pages, that has been reprinted in recent years. Within that period, many thousands in the country, which it is the object of a Gazetteer to embrace, have taken place. States have been formed—new counties formed—new towns, villages—in a word, the whole face of the country, literally, has undergone a change, and consequently, the condition of the country, as regards its topography, is now, to be learned from no single work.

This deficiency the compilers of the proposed Gazetteer have undertaken to supply. And in presenting it to the public for their patronage, the publishers feels confident that it will be found to be—as it is designed to be—a work of the character which it aims to be. For the name of the respective gentlemen who are to be associated in the compilation—one of whom is already well known as the author of several valuable geographical works—and, it is believed, be a sufficient guarantee of the fidelity and accuracy in the proposed volume. The labors of more than seven years have already been bestowed upon it; and it is presumed that access has been had, to every publication which could in any degree enhance the value of the work. These facts, together with the high commendations bestowed upon the first edition of the work, and the rapidity of its sale—it having been entirely disposed of within four months from the day of its publication—induces the publisher to undertake a second and improved edition. A Map of the United States, (not contained in the former) will be added to the work; and the publisher confidently believes, that such its issues have been taken to secure a careful revision of the first, as will ensure the accuracy of the forthcoming edition. With these facts in mind, he trusts that the proposed volumes will be found more rich in every kind of information proper to be stored in such a work—in historical, geographical, political, literary, and statistical information—and presenting a larger amount of facts relative to our country, its institutions, and resources, than can be found in any other volume.

CONDITIONS.

The paper will be of a fine quality, and the type new and handsome.

The volume will be of a royal octavo size, and will contain 600 or more printed pages; a well executed Map of the United States, 15 by 20 inches, and neatly coloured, will also be comprised in the work. It will be well bound, in sheep, and in a neat, appropriate and substantial manner. The price to subscribers will be four dollars, payable on delivery of the work.

THE NEW-YORKER.

UNDER this title, a new Literary Journal, of the largest imperial size was issued to its subscribers on Saturday, the 22d of March. It is thus features are as follows:

"THE NEW-YORKER" is equal in size and appearance to any of the literary weeklies of this city, and at the same time afforded at a much lower rate than the cheapest of them—It will combine more completely than any of its immediate rivals the distinguishing characteristics of a literary journal with those of a regular and systematic chronicle of passing events. In short, it is designed to commend itself as a general newspaper, alike acceptable to the lover of literature, the devotee of business, and the gleaner of intelligence. It will contain—

I. LITERATURE OF THE DAY—embracing Reviews of New Publications, Original Tales, Essays, Poems, &c. with selections from the wide range of English and American periodical literature.

II. GENERAL INTELLIGENCE—comprising the current news of the day, foreign and domestic, whether civil or political—carefully avoiding, however, the least semblance of partisan bias or politics, and confined strictly to the presentation of a general and impartial account of the movements of all parties whatever, without commentary and without the exhibition of personal prejudices.

Should their journal receive the approbation and the support of the public, the undersigned pledge themselves to expend neither exertions nor expense to render its literary character and general interest at least equal in case of its contemporaries, and whatever may be the measure of their encouragement, they confidently assert that it shall be excelled by few in quantity of matter, or in the variety and originality of its contents.

H. RIDLEY & CO.

☞ The New Yorker has no connection whatever with an eponymous work with the same title, which was published last season; but, in order to free our good name from all opprobrium, we hereby agree to send our paper GRATUITOUSLY to all the patrons of that concern for the whole term for which they have paid the publisher thereof.

Office 114 Fulton street.

CONDITIONS.

THE NEW YORKER is published every Saturday morning, on a large imperial sheet, containing twenty-four wide and closely printed columns, and forwarded to its patrons, whether in the city or country, at the rate of TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable in advance. When payment is delayed till the end of the second quarter, fifty cents will be added.

Any person procuring us six subscribers in the country, and forwarding $10 free of postage, will be entitled to the remainder for his trouble, and in the same proportion for a larger number. Companies uniting in a remittance will be supplied on the same terms.

Postmasters, Booksellers, and General Agents for the circulation of periodicals are respectfully solicited to interest themselves in our behalf, and are hereby assured that they shall in all cases receive the highest remuneration which the low price of our paper will enable us to give.

IN CHANCERY,

26th August, 1834.

Horace Roby, and Mary his Wife, administrators of Francis Murdock vs.
Peter Griffin, Adm'r. of Precious Griffin.

THE bill in this case states, that the complainants as administrators of Francis Murdock, are entitled to one-half of certain negroes bequeathed by a certain John Griffin by a will bearing date the 21st of October 1806, to his two daughters Mary Griffin and Precious Griffin, to be equally divided between them by his executor—It further states that the negroes were paid over to Mary Griffin and Precious Griffin, by the executor, without his dividing them—That Precious Griffin is dead, and died intestate and unmarried. That subsequently to her death Mary Griffin intermarried with Francis Murdock, and at the time of her intermarriage with Francis Murdock she had in her possession three negroes being one of the negroes mentioned in said John Griffin's will as bequeathed to Mary Griffin and Precious Griffin, and the other two were the increase of the other negro mentioned in said will—That Mary Murdock is dead, and that Francis Murdock her husband, survived her, and died in the year 1833—That Peter Griffin has administered on the estate of Precious Griffin, and claims one of said negroes. The object of the bill is to have a sale of the negroes or the money arising from the sale to be divided between the complainants and the Peter Griffin, as administrator of Precious Griffin. The bill further states, that Peter Griffin, the administrator of Precious Griffin resides in the District of Columbia, and beyond the jurisdiction of this court.

Whereupon it is Ordered, That the complainants, by causing a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper once a week for three successive weeks before the 1st day of September next, give notice to the absent defendant of the filing of complaints and warning him to appear in this court in person, or by solicitor, in this city, on or before the 26th day of January next, to show cause, if any he hath, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

True copy—Test.
