Corotuck County in the Province of north Carolina

Be it Known to all men that on the twenty second day of August in the Year of our Lord One thousand Seven hundred and fifty. Personally appeared before me Henry While Esq. one of his Majestys Justices of the Peace for the afs. County Henry Parr Master or Commander of the Tasker schooner of Maryland. and did Solemnly declare and Protest upon Oath on the Holy Evangelist that on Sunday the twenty ninth of July 1750 he set Sail in Company with the Goodwin of Liverpool and Humphrey of London all three from Barbadoes bound for the Capes of Virginia. but on their Passage he met with Currents which set him much more to the Westward than he reckoned himself and on the Seventeenth of this Present August at 11 O Clock at Night found the afs. Schooner to strike the Ground (at Noon of the same day he Reckoned himself in the Longitude 72°. 30' west from London and by observation was in Latitude 36. 30 N) tho at that time he reckoned himself at least forty leagues from the Land, but to his great misfortune found it otherways the said Deponent further declareth that soon after his being on Shore a violent Gale ensued which Caused a great Sea which forced the said Schooner well on upon the Shore. and at the same time Bulged and filled, and that on the eighteenth and nineteenth of the same Month it blew quite a Storm of wind E and ESE which with the great Sea that then Run hinder'd his getting to any Magistrate to make a Protest (being on a low Island of Land) 'til this 22nd Jns. but that he and his People all that time did their utmost to save what they could of the Rigging and Cargo for the Benefit of the owners or Insurers of the said Schooner the afs. Deponent further Declares that there was no default in him or his Company, but that the aforesaid accident happen'd through the Cause of various Currents which must have set them further to Westward than they reckoned themselves and so Caused the aforesaid misfortune to him & the other two likewise.

Henry Parr.
