said Jeremiah T Chase at the time of his death, remaining to be administered in the hands and custody of the said Richard M Chase and Richard I Crabb, if so much thereof in their hands to be administered they had, and if so much thereof in their hands to be administered they had not, then the costs and charges aforesaid to be levied of the proper goods and chattels of the said Richard M Chase and Richard I Crabb, as by the record and proceedings thereof in the said Court remaining manifestly appeared. Therefore the said Sheriff was thereby commanded, that of the goods and chattels which were of the said Jeremiah T Chase at the time of his death, in the hands and custody of the said Richard M Chase and Richard I Crabb, remaining to be administered, being in his bailiwick, he should cause to be levied the damages, costs and charges aforesaid, if the said Richard M Chase and Richard I Crabb had so much of the goods and chattels which were of the said Jeremiah T Chase at the time of his death in their hands to be administered, and if they had not so much thereof in their hands to be administered, then the costs and charges aforesaid to be levied of the proper goods and chattels of the said Richard M Chase and Richard I Crabb, and have those sums before the said County Court, to be held at the city of Annapolis on the third Monday of April then next, to render unto the said President, Directors and Company of the Farmers Bank of Maryland the damages, costs and charges aforesaid. and whereas also the said writs came to the hands of said Sheriff, and in pursuance of the command therein contained the said Sheriff laid the same among other property upon the following negroes of the goods and chattels of the said Jeremiah T Chase, to wit, a negro boy named Bill, aged fifteen years to serve until he arrives to the age of thirty one years, one negro boy named John, aged sixteen years, to serve until he arrives to the age of thirty one years, one negro girl Jenny, aged thirteen years, to serve until she arrives to the age of thirty one years, one negro boy named Jeremiah aged nine years, to serve until he arrives to the age of thirty one years, one negro girl named Hester, aged six years, to serve until she arrives to the age of thirty one years. And whereas also after due notice being given of the same, the said Sheriff, did, on the thirteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty two, expose the said negro slaves to public sale to the highest bidder, and thereat the said Nicholas Brewer Junior became the highest bidder and purchaser of the said negro slaves for their said terms of service for the following sums, to wit, the said negro boy Bill for the sum of one hundred and seventy five dollars, the said negro boy John for the sum of Two hundred and seventeen dollars, the said negro girl Jenny for the sum of seventy dollars, the said negro boy Jeremiah for the sum of fifty dollars, and the said negro girl Hester for the sum of thirteen dollars, and hath since paid the purchase money to the said Sheriff.

Now this Indenture Witnesseth, that for and in consideration of the premises, and of the further sum of five dollars current money of the United States to the said Rushrod W Marriott Sheriff as aforesaid, in hand paid, at or before the sealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the said

Rushrod