Maryland, Anne Arundel County, to wit: On this twenty fifth day of October Eighteen hundred and thirty two, before me one of the Justices of the peace in and for the county aforesaid, personally appeared George Tyler and acknowledged the foregoing instrument of writing to be his act and deed, according to the true intent and meaning thereof and the act of assembly in such case made and provided.

Caleb White

Ch. D.
4 3/4

Recorded the 26th day of October 1832.

---

This Deed, made this nineteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand Eight hundred and thirty two, between Andrew M^c Laughlin, of Ann Arundel County and State of Maryland, of the one part: and David Barnum, of the City of Baltimore in the same State, and John Brien of Frederick County and State aforesaid, of the other part: Whereas, at the instance of the said Andrew M^c Laughlin, the parties hereto of the second part have lately Endorsed for him a promissory note of Eight thousand Dollars, and also ten promissory notes of Two hundred and forty dollars each, drawn by said M^c Laughlin in favour of said Barnum: all of which notes have been passed and delivered to Richard Caton, John Mactavish and Charles Carroll of Homewood, agents and attorneys of Charles Carroll of Carrollton, for the like sum of Eight thousand dollars lent by them to said M^c Laughlin, payable at five years after date, and the Interest of said sum semi annually according to the tenor of said notes: and as a security for the payment of said notes at maturity, the said Andrew M^c Laughlin and also Frances his wife have Executed to the said Caton, Mactavish and Carroll of Homewood a mortgage of and for certain property situated at the junction of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road and the Baltimore and Frederick town Turnpike Road, on the south side of Patapsco Falls in Ann Arundel County and near to Ellicotts Mills lately purchased by said M^c Laughlin from Mary Hincks and her Trustee Benjamin Palmer

And whereas the said Andrew M^c Laughlin as a collateral or additional security to the said David Barnum and John Brien for the engagements so as aforesaid Entered into by them for him, hath proposed and voluntarily agreed to execute this Instrument. Now these presents Witness that for and in consideration of the above recited premises, and of the sum of Five dollars lawful money, to the party hereto of the first part paid by the parties of the second part hereto, at or before the sealing and delivery hereof, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the said Andrew M^c Laughlin hath bargained and sold, conveyed, assigned, transferred and made over, and doth hereby bargain and sell, convey assign, transfer and make over unto the said David Barnum and John Brien their Executors, administrators & assigns Forty Beds, Mattresses, Bedsteads and furniture, Twenty Mahogany Tables of various sizes, twenty dozen Chairs, Six Bureaus, one Sofa, and Piano Forte, all being in the Patapsco Hotel at present owned and occupied by the said M^c Laughlin: and also all the Silver Plate and Plated Ware, and generally all and singular the furniture, chattels