Nov. 10 Whereas I am certainely informed, that Corne this present yeare is very much feared to be wanting, to supply the Inhabitants of this province, and that there is no great likelihood of any considerable supply to be sent to us in ffrom a forreign, but must wholly or in part depend upon it here, and that the growth of any such corne is most [illegible] to the inhabitants hereof: I have ordered strictly to prohibit and forbidd all persons or person whatsoever to ran or transport any corne out of the province, without leave first obtaynd from me, upon pyne of the same of such penalty as the Provinciall Court shall adjudge such offence to deserve. Likewise for the benefitt and preservation of the increase of the stock of horses now in the province, which to be a disadvantage of his Ma: Colony and the safety of the Inhabitants of the Province being so exposed both in peace and warr, and the said stock being as yet but small, I do hereby strictly prohibit and forbidd, any horse, mare or foale to be transported out of the province, by any person or persons whatsoever but with his Lo: pleasure be first signified thereto: upon paine of such punishment as shall be thought fitt by the provinciall Court to be inflicted upon all such persons, as shall be attainted to be the contrary hereof; Assure all such persons that I intend to take a strict account of all attempts in the contrary of either of the two branches, and shall look upon such offenders, as upon those that affected to the ruine and hurt of the province of his Province. Given at St Mary's this 10 day of Nov: 1642
