Walter Crowle deposed, at ye request of Edw: Cottom, saith that he doth acknowledge to have given unto Tho: Baker an yearelong Bull of his owne proper stock, about ye beginning of ye Rebellion in this pro: of Virginia, the Hoofe only having a little white ring upon ye Tayle, marked, ye one eare cropt, ye other cropt, w.th 2 slits, in ye crop; w.ch is now, & was then, his owne proper marke. And further he saith, ye neither Charles Rawlyson, nor Blanch Oliver were present, at ye delivery of ye forego.d Bull, unto Tho: Baker at ye Cross-howse. For he certainely remembreth, ye he neu.d made any guift or delivery thereof at ye Cross-howse, nor any where else, then at S.t Maries, where ye Beast did usually run. And ye he neu.d gave other delivery thereof, then by allowing him ye s.d Baker, to take ye s.d Beast, when he found him. For himselfe att ye time did not know, where ye s.d Bull was. & further he saith not.

This day ye ffreemen of ye County of S.t Maries met together att ye Court to advise touching ye Levy of ye charges incurred this p.sent year, & determined by ye Court & Councell, on ye 9 Octob. last, to be levyed out of ye County. The whole charge amounting to 7752 li. Tob & Cask. The ffreemen alledge, ye ye charge for emprisonment of ye Indians, is unduely layd upon ye County; But alledge not any thing materiall for it. Whereupon ye Court found no reason to alter ye former order set downe by ye Court & Councell as above. As concerning ye manner of levying ye s.d charge. The ffreemen unanimously agreed, & concluded, ye it should be levyed from all ye Tytheable p.sons, Inhab.ts of S.t Maries County equally, ye Lead, ye were residing in ye County from ye tenth of June last. w.ch resulteth to 5 li. Tob.
