Francis Brooks Gent. att ye request of Capt. Giles Brent, saith upon his oath, That he was pst when Capt Vaughan examined Roger Boaster upon his oath, sometime the last yeare betweene Michaëlmas & Christmas, touching ye burning of Capt. Brents Books by Edw: Commins: & yt he did heare ye said Boaster declare, how yt he saw Edw: Commins goe up into Mr. Brents Loft, & throw downe ye Books, saying Burne them Papists Diuells, or words to ye effect. And further this Dept. saith That after upon discourse touching this matter, wch ye said Roger Boaster, & ye said Boaster told this Dept. yt he thought yt Capt Vaughan did not sett downe his full oath punctually. But left out this touching the Books, for he did not heare that read, & yt it, of all most concerned Capt. Brent. Further hee saith, That he, this Dept, heard Capt. Vaughan read ye Dept. wch he had taken of Roger Boaster to Capt. Brent, & he heard nothing in it touching ye Books, wch att ye time hee did much wonder att. And further he saith not.

Juret Coram Nobis.

Novemb. 9. Francis Brooks Gent. complayned agst Willm. Jaynes of Kent, for That about 2 yeares ago the ye said Jaynes made bargaine & cont wth this compl. for a certaine number of hogs, & cattle, wch he was bound to make delivery of to him att ye passing the Bill thereof: wch this compl did. & ye said Jaynes hath not as yett made any delivery thereof, whereby he is damnified to ye value of 2500. ℔ tob. And desireth that the Bill wch this compl passed to him, for ye foresd cattle & swine.

Warrt. to ye Sheriffe of Kent retn Januar. Crast.

1649 Whereas it is publikely knowne to all ye Jakes of Kent yt in ye late Rebell of ye Island Jno: Gresham of ye Island Thanet was a Partaker wth ye Rebells & a permissive & active Justrument to maintaine ye said Rebell of foes. And whereas ye said Jno: Gresham notwthstanding the late Lords Pardon published on ye Ile of Kent 16. Apr. 1647: & ye last Pardon alsoe published by The: Green Esq: Lord of this province & bearing date att St. Maries 4. March 1647: in ye case favorably provided by all persons whatsoever interessed in ye foresd Rebell. (Reid Jngle Marin only excepted) expressing sorrow for their faults, & comming & craving for their Pardon before Michaëlmas last past, should have their Pardon for their offences committed, as aforesd. Wch notwthstanding ye said John Gresham persisting in his ill minde, as it doth appeare, hath contemned & neglected to sue for. They are therefore to require & authorize all Sheriffs, belonging unto this province, If att any time they shall find ye said Jno: Gresham wthin their Jurisdiction, yt they shall as a Rebell apprehend him, & deliver him into hands of Justice. And likewise yt in especiall ye Sheriffe of Kent (in wch County ye said Gresham is layd to have some Estate appertaining to him) is hereby required, to cause Enquiry to be made, wthin ye said County of Kent, of any Lands or goods belonging to him wthin ye County. & ye same to seize to ye Lds Proprietors use. And after such seisure made, to deliver the one halfe thereof, into ye hands of his Lps Attorney or Receiver; & ye other halfe to ye pnt Governor of this Province, to whom ye same shall appertaine: And for so doing this shall be his & their warrt.

To Mr. Willm Tompson High-Sheriffe of St. Maries &c

To Henry Morgan Sheriffe of Kent.