* Great cattle fower.
* Per thinks.

after the flight of the said Peter Knight & his Crew, from Kent house, he the said at Kent house, did in a Ditch seauen* one fower. whereby the said Dept* affirmes that the said Knight or his Souldiers killed 2 Oxen. allthough he knowes not w*ch of them killed them; because the fower were of cattle lately killed. Likewise this Dept* say he heard Mr. Browne of Kent say, the Knight & his Gange, had killed a calfe in plentiuon: & the allmost daily they were gunning of it, after cattle. Likewise the said Knight first entred on Kent Mills, there was in good repayre. but immediately after his departure from Kent house, he this Dept* being sent thither by the Court to looke after cattle. saw the there were all her iron works gone, w*ch he tell he taken away, w*out pulling down the frame. Whereby he did verily believe, (allthoughe he saw them not to doe it) the said Knight, or his people had taken away all the said iron worke. w*ch he believes the rather also; Because during the mill was whole this Dept* heard the said Knight say If he had the Irons of the said mill for 10 or 14 t. steerelong. & more the Dept* remembers not of the speech. But shortly after the said irons were taken away. Likewise the w*th some of Mr. Brents or Mrs. Brents chaines & yokes (as one Pitt told this Dept) Knight caused a peice of Ordnance to be drawne in the Plant after Tompsons relinquishment of the Plant to Knight. Likewise the waine & wheeles belonging to Mr. Brent or Mrs. Brent were burnt w*th the forest. Tob. house. And the at the same time, that house was burnt, they had put fire to the Barne: whereby the wal-plate was burnt in two. And likewise the he this Dept* comming to keepe house as aforesd* immediately after the said Knights departure, found the house, w*ch was doore but one left on the hinges: all the locks taken away. & the said house very much defaced. Further this Dept* sayth not. Signed

Juratus. Coram Giles Brent. Rich: Cornford
