Capt. John Harris Comand. of the Shipp Dover of Lond. being also ex ye Same time upon oath examined Did Deposed.

That the said Capt. Josias Fendall some time about the month of July last aboard the the Deponents said Shipp ye Dover say he had been a great Sufferer by the Rancks. That if time served he would right himself for words to that purpose, and that if he were ticked again he would fett.

April ye 29th 1679.

His Ext. the Lord Prop. and his Council again mett as yesterday.

Capt. Francis Carlis also according to ye precept to him Directed yesterday makes his appearance, and upon Oath further Examined, Again Deposed vis.

That about ye Latter End of February last he being at ye house of Capt. Josias Fendall in Charles County there discourseing concerning the troubles in England, the said Fendall asked the Deponent whether it was true that a man of Warr was coming in for ye Lord Baltimore to wch the Deponent replyed that it was so reported, and that there were two ffriggatts ready but were not yett come, the said Fendall again said what need they find any man of warr for the Country, for if they will but send two or three Lusty men I will engage to secure my Lord Baltimore and send him home saveing that charge, for further said the said Fendall I durst engage with thirty or fourty men to Do it, And that two or three Days before he had been over with the Governor with whom he had had a great Deal of Discourse, and amongst the rest were talking of the Gentes of poysoning the people at St. Maries, and that the said Fendall told the Governor that he believed it was a thing acted and Designed by the Papists against his Honor and that he would write home to England concerning the same; And the said Fendall further said that he had suffered much heretofore, but now he hoped the time was coming that he might right himself. And further this Deponent saith not.

Francis Carlis

Jurat. Ap. 29: 1679.

Summons also issued forth to Capt. John Harris requiring him to make his appearance also this Day in ye words following vis.

Maryland ss.

You are hereby strictly charged & Comanded forthwith upon sight hereof to make yr personall appearance before his Lop. the right Hon: ye Lord Prop. and his Council at Manahowick

No. 6