Mr Coulton you have in your memorial stated as to the reason why you brought upon him not only a regard to his Case but that the Court of Country where he Example is more prevalent the Legislature & especially Parliament be now sent in by the right reverend the L.d Bishop of London

Coulton you do not remember his application to him for leave to go for England to fetch his wife & that he treated admiral he should have married another in the Country & that he began to humself whereupon Coulton & thinking that he did not grant him any such power to grant licence to himself

Mr. Lowman says he did not give himself a licence but had one from Mr. Hughes Comy which he produces & is referred to us
