by petition to be remitted. He further states that he is poor, and totally unable to pay the said fine, and he prays for their remission. And the Court being satisfied of the truth of his petition, we do hereby remit the said fine.

On the petition of Richard Collier of Talbot County accompanied by a transcript from the docket of the County Court of said County, it appears that he was fined by the said Court at November Term last sixteen dollars for assaulting and battering William H. Bailey, and in default the sum of two dollars and in the other the sum of twelve dollars.

The petitioner states that at the time the said assault and battery was alleged to have been committed his wife was apartes with the aforesaid prosecutor and calumniating of the said William H. Bailey and his wife, and that by the petitioner interfering with the occasion was intended and was only to protect his wife from threatened violence and shield her from further abuse, and the said William H. Bailey was the only witness examined before the Court upon the trial, the disturbance having taken place in the room of his wife, who was there apartes and afraid to appear and prevented him from adducing testimony to rebut the said Bailey's evidence. He further states that he is very moderate circumstances with his wife and children dependant upon his labour and industry for support. He therefore prays to be released from the said fine. And sundry respectable citizens of the City of Annapolis having recommended a compliance with his prayer, we do hereby remit the said fine.

On the petition of William Cullivan of the City of Annapolis, it appears that he was fined by Anne Arundel County Court at April Term 1828 the sum of five dollars for an assault and battery on Regin Baldwin. The petitioner states that the offence though small in amount is a serious matter to him, he being poor and obliged to work very hard to support himself and family; that the prosecution given by the said Baldwin is vindictive and outrage on his feelings, and this in his own house, that it is the first time he has ever been prosecuted for a breach of the peace, which consisted in merely slapping Baldwin. He therefore prays to be released from the said fine. And sundry respectable citizens of the City of Annapolis having recommended a compliance with his prayer, we do hereby remit the said fine.
