

Wee also think that the Navall officers will scarce gett a L. H. J. Copie of this long law under 200^{li} To^{bo} wee are also of opinion that your House was mistaken as to that part of a paragraph of the Lord Prop^{rs} letter Communicated to you relateing to the payments of the rents and alienation fines, wherefore wee again propose it to you that a Clause be putt into this Bill obligeing the several tenants to make speedy payment of their arrearages of rent and alienation fines due from the time of the death of Charles Lord Baron of Baltemore deced untill the Commencement of this Act and as the most Effectuall means thereof It is proposed that it be done by way of Execution.

Whereupon the following Endorsment was made on the said Bill in answer thereto and ordered to be entred thus (Viz)

By the Lower house of Assembly

Aug^t 7th 1716

May it please y^r Hon^{rs}

Your Endorsement of this day on this Bill by Phil Lloyd p. 217 Esq^r being read this house rather than give any greater Sallary than two and a half p Cent to the Treasurer who runs no manner of Risque and undergoes little or no trouble in negotiateing that money Chuses to lett the same be under the negotiation of the Navall officers who receive it to be by them Remitted into the hands of Cap^t Hyde at the Countreys Risque and are desirous in case any more than two and a half p Cent be required the clause relateing to the payment to the Treasurer should be wholly left out.

The House is further of opinion that the allowance of 100^{li} To^{bo} is sufficient to procure a Copy of the law and as to that part of it relateing to our Mistake in the paragraph of part of his Lordships and the Lord Guilfords letter this house cannot agree to putt those rents on Execution being a thing never heretofore used or desired by the Right Hon^{ble} the Lord Prop^{rs} ancestors and the rents being Inherent to the Land are other wise well secured.
