and the said Rifles having been in the possession of Captain Vaugh's company for several years, and it being represented that some of the Rifles Loaned to Captain Vaugh are missing and cannot be found, after all possible exertions by the parties to the Bond, — the Bond for fifty Rifles Loaned to Captain Vaugh for the use of his company was directed by the Executive to be cancelled, and returned to the obligors — which was done accordingly. —

On the nomination of His Excellency the Governor, and by and with the advice and consent of the Council, the following civil appointments were made and Commissions issued accordingly viz:

Owen Cecil additional Justice of the peace of Anne Arundel County. —

Anthony R. Wallace and Charles Travers additional Justices of the peace of Dorchester County. —

Charles Travers, a Justice of the 6th Election District Court for Dorchester County Vice John Travers resigned.

George O. Frenchard additional Justice of the peace of Kent County. —

Pilghman Johnson, a Justice of the Second Election District Court of Caroline County Vice Wm. Orrell declined. —

William Childs, of Baltimore City a Visitor of the Jail of Baltimore City and County Vice Carroll resigned. —

John Wilkins, a Trustee for the Poor of Baltimore City and County, on the part of the County, Vice Birkhead declined. —

William Riley additional Justice of the peace of Allegany County. —

Benjamin Brown of Anne Arundel County, and Benjamin Cook of the City of Baltimore, Weighers of Anthracite or hard Coal and Measurers of Bituminous Coal for the City of Baltimore. —

Ordered that the commissions [illegible] to Captain Grafton Chenoweth for forty Muskets [illegible] of the Company under his command. —