In Council January 16th. 1789

James Philips of Frederick County by his Petition sets forth that he rented the house of a certain Andrew Kesler who had taken out a licence to keep Ordinary and sold Liquors under the same but being ignorant of the Law did not take out licence until November term, when he was presented and fined for continuing to sell after August term, at which term the said Keslers licence expired. The Board in consideration of the Recommendation of three of the Justices of the said County do direct that four hundred pounds of Tobacco part of six hundred pounds of Tobacco the fine above imposed, be remitted.
