Sent to the senate by the clerk.

The following message being prepared, was read, agreed to, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 19, 1800.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

HAVING finished all the business on our table, we propose, with the concurrence of your house, to meet this evening at 6 o'clock, in order that the laws passed this session may be signed and sealed.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

The clerk of the senate delivers the following message:

BY THE SENATE, DECEMBER 19, 1800.

GENTLEMEN,

WE shall, agreeably to your proposition, adjourn until six o'clock this evening.

By order,

W. S. GREEN, clk.

Which was read.

RESOLVED unanimously, That the thanks of this house be presented to Edward Hall, Esquire, in testimony of our approbation of his conduct in the chair, and of his ability, impartiality and attention, manifested in the discharge of the various duties assigned him as speaker of this house.

The house adjourns till 6 o'clock.

P O S T M E R I D I E M.

THE house met.

Mr. M'Pherson, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the journal of accounts; which was read the first and second time and assented to.

ORDERED, That the committee of claims prepare and bring in a bill for the payment of the same.

The engrossed bills No. 86, 87 and 88, were read and assented to, and sent to the senate, with the paper bills thereof, by the clerk.

The clerk of the senate delivers the paper bills No. 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84 and 85, severally endorsed; "By the senate, December 19, 1800: The engrossed bill whereof this is the original read and assented to.

"By order,

W. S. GREEN, clk."

Mr. M'Pherson, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act for the payment of the journal of accounts; which was read the first and second time by especial order, passed, and sent to the senate, with the journal of accounts, by the clerk.

A representation from the printer of the state, stating, that the laws compiled by William Kilty, would be completed in a few days, and requesting some person or persons might be authorized to settle and pass his account for printing that work, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Chapman, Mr. Lowes, Mr. S. Frazier, Mr. Geoghegan and Mr. Nelson, to consider and report thereon.

Mr. Lowes, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the memorial of Frederick Green report, that they have considered the same, and are of opinion that the memorialist neglecting to come forward in the early part of the session with his accounts properly stated, on which the house might have acted themselves, and your committee having no vouchers before them on which they could act, think it most advisable to refer the same to the next session of assembly.

By order,

R. K. WATTS, clk.

Which was read the first and second time, and the question put, That the house concur therewith? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
