

1 to join me in thanking him for his great work and assistance
2 and help. (Applause.)

3 THE PRESIDENT: One qualification for the 4 Chairman of the Committee on Style, Drafting and Arrangement
5 which Delegate Byrnes did not mention, and which is possessed
6 in abundance by Delegate Penniman, is the ability to remain
7 completely unruffled, despite the insistence of the Presi-
8 dent every hour on the hour that he get on with the business
9 and "get it back to me immediately."

10 DELEGATE BYRNES: Mr. Chairman and ladies and 11 gentlemen of the Convention, you might be interested to 12 know that the committee drafted a letter of commendation
13 to Chairman Penniman and Dr. Phillips, who served so ably.
14 You will be interested to know that we have revised it
15 three times and can't agree on the language.

16 THE PRESIDENT: Is the problem with the language
17 or the punctuation?

18 A note has been passed up to me which I would 19 like to read to you.

20 All of the pages would like to express to the 21 Convention their appreciation for the opportunity afforded
