5 Penniman, the Chairman of the Style, Drafting and Arrange-
6 ment Committee of this Convention.

7 (A gavel was presented to the Honorable Howard 8 R. Penniman, the Chairman of the Style, Drafting and 9 Arrangement Committee.) (Applause)

10 HONORARY PRESIDENT TAWES: These gavels are made 11 from African mahogany wood, and the chairmen of these 12 committees will have a really fine memento of the service
13 that they have given to their committees.

14 Now, in the Committee of the Executive Branch, 15 I had the pleasure of serving on that Committee and our 16 Vice Chairman, a neighbor from Wicomico County, was very 17 effective. He was a member of the Study Commission, and 18 while I didn't agree with him on everything that he was for, 19 still we got along beautifully, and we are going back to the 20 Eastern Shore and we are still going to be good friends.

21 Delegate Finch has prepared one of these gavels
