

12 ADMINISTRATION.

cutor, by will authorised to sell the real estate, for the purpose of paying debts, or for other exigencies, ought to give ample security for both real and personal estate.

Warrants for appraisers.

Warrants, for appraisement of the deceased's goods and chattels, must next be made out, (vide appendix No. 8) to two persons perfectly disinterested; great caution and circumspection ought to be used in the choice of appraisers; such only should be appointed, as are skilful, honest and impartial, entirely free from all suspicion of entertaining either favour or prejudice, or having any interest in over-rating or undervaluing the effects.

A due representation of the deceased being thus settled and established, within the limited time of three months must be returned

T H E I N V E N T O R Y

And lists of debts, both sperate and desperate, due to the estate.

The preamble to inventories is commonly in these words, viz.

An