

that is, at any time before, but not one day after the 15th April 1767, in the following words, verbatim, viz.

“ Then came A. B. and made oath, &c. that the Probate to an “ above account is just and true as it stands account.
 “ stated, and that he hath not, directly or indi“ rectly (to his knowledge) received any part or “ parcel thereof, or any security or satisfaction for
 “ the same, more than credit given.”

To which deposition, a receipt as above directed being obtained, and subjoined to the account, it will be a proper and legal voucher.

If several years dealings are contained in such account, then one probate is required as above for the first year's dealings, and another probate for the second year; which probate must as before include the first article becoming due of that second year, and be proved any time within twelve months from that date; a third probate must appear for the third year, in the same manner, and so on, for every succeeding year's dealings, a probate for every year, until all and every article of the account appear to have been proved within a twelvemonth from the time they became due; these several probates being only transcripts from the books of the creditors, (who do, or ought to prove