

SEC. 20. And be it enacted, That in all cases, suits, complaints or prosecutions instituted or brought before the said district court, either party shall be entitled to appear and prosecute and defend the same by agent or attorney, being such as have been admitted to practise the law in any county courts of this state.

Attorneys admitted to plead.

SEC. 21. And be it enacted, That any person having in any case, suit, complaints, or prosecution pending before any district court as aforesaid, and making oath or affirmation as the case may be, that he or she cannot have a fair and impartial trial of said case, suit, complaint or prosecution, before the justices of the said court, the same shall be removed for trial before some other adjoining district court of the same county, to be chosen by the parties requesting the removal; and in such case all the papers and proceedings in the case shall be sent by the chief justice of the district court, in which the case is pending, to the chief justice of the district court, adjoining the district from which said cause shall be removed, and the said other district court shall take cognizance of the case, and hear, try and determine the same, and give judgment in the premises in the same manner, and to the same effect as the court in which it was first brought or instituted, could have tried the same and given judgment therein.

Removal of causes.

SEC. 22. And be it enacted, That all laws relating to proceedings by or against executors or administrators before justices of the peace, shall be and they are hereby extended and made applicable to proceedings by or against executors or administrators, before the said district courts, so far forth as the same may be done consistently with the other provisions of this act.

Proceedings against executors, &c.

SEC. 23. And be it enacted, That all writs or other processes issued by any of the said district justices or district courts, as such, under the provisions of this act, shall be made returnable at the next monthly meeting of the said district court thereafter to be holden, except subpoenas, and attachments for compelling the appearance and attendance of witnesses, that each witness shall be entitled to charge and receive for each day's attendance in obedience to the mandate of the court, the sum of thirty-three and one-third cents, to be taxed as costs of the suit.

Writs returnable.

Compensation to witnesses.

SEC. 24. And be it enacted, That each of the chief justices of the said district courts for all of his services as such, under the provisions of this act, shall have and be entitled to retain out of any moneys received by him as herein before provided, the sum of three dollars per day, for every day that he may or shall attend the sitting of the said court, and each of the other district justices shall have and be entitled to receive the sum of

Per diem to
C. Judge.

To associates.