

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the book-keeper shall keep a record of the attendance of said agents and directors, as directors and as members of the monthly committee, and they shall be paid for their services according to the entries in said record. Record of attendance.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the directors, warden, assistant warden, agent and all other officers of the said penitentiary, shall perform and discharge all and singular the duties that may be assigned them respectively by this or any subsequent act of assembly, or by the rules and regulations of the board of directors, hereafter to be adopted, and not inconsistent with the provisions of law, or the rules and regulations herein after established; and if any of them wilfully omit or refuse to discharge any duty appertaining to his office, after having accepted the said appointment, he or she shall be dismissed from office, and be subject to a fine of not less than thirty dollars, and not more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered at the instance of the board of directors, in the name of the state, for the use of the said penitentiary, before any justice of the peace or court having jurisdiction, as small debts are now collected. Duties of warden and officers.
Penalty for neglect.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said agents, warden, book-keeper, assistant warden, and the other officers, before entering upon the discharge of the duties of their respective offices, shall execute bonds to the state, with security, to be approved by the board of directors, and in no manner connected with the management of the said penitentiary; the two former (that is the agent and warden,) in the sum of ten thousand dollars each, and the book-keeper in the sum of five thousand dollars, the assistant warden in the sum of two thousand dollars, and the other officers in the sum of one thousand dollars respectively, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties required of them respectively by the laws of this state, and the rules and regulations that may be adopted, from time to time, for the government of the said penitentiary; and the said bonds shall be filed in the executive department of the state, and a certified copy thereof, under the seal of the state, shall be evidences in actions on said bonds, or any of them; and if either of the officers aforesaid shall neglect to execute bond, as prescribed by this act, or neglect to take the oath prescribed in the eleventh section thereof, within twenty days after notice of his or her appointment, another person shall be appointed in place of the said delinquent. Bond required of the officers.
Securities.
Filed.
Failing to bond, &c.
Appointment void.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said directors and all the officers of said institution, before they act as such, shall make oath or affirmation, that he or she will well and faithfully execute and perform the duties appertaining to his or her office, according to the laws of this state, and the rules and regulations adopted for the government of the Maryland penitentiary, and Oath required.