

	Page.
Where an injunction issues to prevent a sheriff, &c. from selling personal property taken in execution, he shall deliver back the property to the party, &c.—1799, ch. 99, sec. 10,	421
Securities in injunction bonds to be approved by the clerks of the respective counties, in the same manner as the judges of the county courts are authorized to do—1822, ch. 131,	783
Where an injunction shall issue to stay proceedings on a judgment at law, upon which a ca. sa. has issued, and has been served, the sheriff shall release the defendant—1826, ch. 157,	877
Whenever the chancellor, or any judge of the county courts, shall overrule an application for an injunction, any one of the judges of the court of appeals may award the injunction or allow the appeal to be heard by the court—1832, ch. 197,	1080
Where an injunction issues or any receiver has been appointed defendant may appeal from the granting or refusing to dissolve such injunction, or from the order appointing a receiver, &c.—1835, ch. 346,	1220
Pending the appeal, such order to have no operation except in cases to stay waste—1835, ch. 346, sec. 3,	1220
Not necessary to give bond, except where the party had given bond, but the court in all cases may require the party to give bond—1835, ch. 346, sec. 3,	1220
Where an injunction shall be granted or receiver appointed, it shall be competent to require such bond, and with such security as the court shall approve—1835, ch. 346, sec. 3,	1220
See Chancery , word ' Injunction .'
In cases therein mentioned of injunctions, on filing the answer, defendant may appeal—1835, ch. 380, sec. 3,	1223
Where no bond has been given, the appeal to stay injunction, unless in case of waste—1835, ch. 380, sec. 4,	1223
In cases of injunction, how testimony may be taken—1835, ch. 380, sec. 8,	1224

INQUEST.

Allowance on, to juries, coroner and constables—1816, ch. 142,	643
In cases of inquest for a forcible entry, &c. bond to be given in the penalty and with security as adjudged by the court, &c. for payment of all costs and damages incurred by the delay of the proceedings, according to the decision—1816, ch. 187,	649
And return, fees on, allowed to justices of the peace—1801, ch. 74, sec. 30,	461
Coroners not to hold a jury of, when it is known that the party came to his death by accident, except when the party died in jail, or when the circumstances attending the death induced a belief that the party came to his death by felony—1831, ch. 250,	1030
Where no inquest is held, coroner to bury such person decently, and levy court to make allowance—1831, ch. 250,	1030
See Baltimore County .	