

The court to proceed by attachment, as in cases of contempt, for compelling him to deliver such property—1819, ch. 84, sec. 8, . . .	709
Nothing in this act, to protect the sureties of the provisional trustee against a recovery on the bond of the provisional trustee, in case he shall not deliver over the whole of the property in his hands—1819, ch. 84, sec. 8,	709
Allowance to the commissioners to be first paid out of the effects of the applicant—1819, ch. 84, sec. 9,	709
No person to be refused a hearing on account of an inability to pay such allowance—1819, ch. 84, sec. 9,	709
The commissioners of insolvent debtors in the city and county of Baltimore empowered to appoint a permanent trustee, whenever an application for that purpose is made by a majority of creditors in value, without appointing a time for the meeting of the creditors—1820, ch. 182, sec. 1,	740
Not less than two commissioners to act on the petition of an insolvent debtor, &c.—1820, ch. 182, sec. 2,	740
The amount paid by a creditor for the support of an insolvent debtor in confinement, to be a preferred claim—1820, ch. 186, sec. 5, . . .	743
A trustee of an insolvent debtor may be discharged from his trust on his application to the court by which he was appointed, and evidence that such discharge will be for the benefit of the creditors, and on producing the assent of two-thirds of his creditors—1820, ch. 194, sec. 1,	760
A new trustee shall thereupon be appointed—1820, ch. 194, sec. 2, . . .	760
The former trustee to be discharged from further obligations on his executing a conveyance to the new trustee—1820, ch. 194, sec. 3, . . .	761
The new trustee to give bond, &c. as the former trustee—1820, ch. 194, sec. 4,	761
The trustee, with the consent of the court by which he was appointed, and on evidence, that such surrender will be for the benefit of the creditors of the insolvent, and on obtaining the consent of two-thirds of the creditors, may surrender up his trust and re-convey and re-deliver to the insolvent all the property remaining in his hands—1820, ch. 194, sec. 5,	761
The trustee allowed to retain in his hands, so much as may be necessary for the payment of debts incurred by him as trustee and eight per cent. commission—1820, ch. 194, sec. 6,	762
The surplus (if any) after the payment of debts and commission, allowed to be paid over to the new trustee or the insolvent debtor, as the case may be—1820, ch. 194, sec. 7,	762
When a petitioner for the benefit of the insolvent laws before the commissioners of insolvent debtors for the city and county of Baltimore, or Baltimore county court, fails to appear on the day required by law, the commissioners or court may in their discretion continue the petition to another day—1820, ch. 250, sec. 1,	779
Where such failure to appear has heretofore taken place, without any fraudulent design on the part of the petitioner, he may prosecute a new petition—1820, ch. 250, sec. 2,	779