

Power of Baltimore county court to appoint new trustees, to extend to cases pending before the passage of the act of 1832, ch. 203,—1833, ch. 173, sec. 5, . . . . . 1674

New trustee authorized to put in suit bond of old trustee—1833, ch. 173, sec. 6, . . . . . 1674

See Baltimore County Court in 'Local Law.'

Baltimore county court to receive trustees' bonds—1832, ch. 173, sec. 7, 1674

Clerk of Baltimore county to receive $1 for his services for docketing, &c. each case of insolvent debtor—1833, ch. 173, sec. 8, . . . . 1674

Any judge of any orphans court, may take the acknowledgment of any conveyance, executed by an insolvent debtor, for the benefit of creditors—1834, ch. 92, . . . . . 1136

In all cases of application for the benefit of the insolvent laws in Baltimore city and county, all conveyances, assignments, sales, deliveries, &c. of property, &c. or confessions of judgment, to the advantage or security, &c. of any creditor, shall be deemed to have been made with a view of becoming an insolvent, and to give an undue preference: provided, that this provision shall not apply to persons claiming by virtue of any assignment or conveyance, for a valuable consideration, from a creditor, or to any creditor who shall appear not to have had notice of the condition of the debtor—1834, ch. 293, sec. 1, . . . . . 1184

All property acquired by an insolvent, by gift, descent, or bequest or devise, or in a course of distribution, shall be applied as effectually, as the property mentioned in his schedule, for the benefit of all his creditors—1834, ch. 293, sec. 1, . . . . . 1184

The receipt of his trustee, for such property, shall avail as the receipt of the insolvent—1834, ch. 293, sec. 2, . . . . . 1184

Property so acquired, not discharged from any execution of attachment, levied previously to the passage of this act, &c.—1834, ch. 293, sec. 2, . . . . . 1184

In cases of attachments or other legal proceedings, instituted for the purpose of making property so acquired, liable, and limitations are pleaded, the lapse of time to be computed from the acquisition—1834, ch. 293, sec. 3, . . . . . 1185

Creditor may require further security in the bond of the insolvent, for his appearance, &c.—1834, ch. 293, sec. 4, . . . . . 1186

Where interrogatories are filed, commissioners may examine witnesses, and compel their attendance by subpoena and attachment—1834, ch. 293, sec. 5, . . . . . 1186

Where an unfavourable report upon the application of an insolvent debtor, shall be made to Baltimore county court, and the insolvent shall apply for a review, personal discharge to cease to have effect, until the review is had, &c.—1834, ch. 293, sec. 6, . . . . . 1186

Scire facias not necessary where more than three years have not elapsed upon judgments, in order to affect property acquired by gift, &c.—1834, ch. 293, sec. 7, . . . . . 1186