

	Page.
Clerks of the counties to receive twenty-five cents for recording and indexing every short copy of a judgment rendered in the magistrates' court—1835, ch. 201, sec. 10,	1204
Fees in the magistrates' court—1835, ch. 201, sec. 10,	1204
Chief district justices to receive for their services, each $3, and each of the other justices $2, for every day's attendance upon his court, to be paid out of the fees collected by them : failing that, by the levy courts or commissioners, &c.—1835, ch. 201, sec. 24,	1209
Constables to be allowed, in addition to the fifty cents now allowed, five cents for every mile after the first five miles they have to travel, in delivering over prisoners—1835, ch. 212,	1212
Fees of constables and justices, in cases of judgments of condemnation of vessels, navigated under the sole command of negroes—1836, ch. 150, sec. 5,	1236

OFFSET.

See PLEADING.

ORDINARY-KEEPERS.

The sheriffs directed to collect and receive all fines and forfeitures under this act, and pay them to the treasurers, and the county clerks to return lists to the treasurers of licenses granted—March, 1780, ch. 24, sec. 3,	158
The justices directed, at certain courts, to set and assess the rates and prices of all liquors, &c. to be vended by ordinary-keepers for the year, to be transcribed and set up by the clerks in the court-houses—1780, ch. 24, sec. 4,	159
Such rates to be set up by ordinary-keepers for perusal in their houses, under the penalty of six hundred pounds of tobacco—1780, ch. 24, sec. 4,	159
Ordinary-keepers demanding or receiving more than the rates to forfeit three hundred pounds of tobacco, and to be non-suit on bringing an action for higher charges—1780, ch. 24, sec. 4,	159
On such accounts being paid, they may be compelled by the county court, or a single magistrate, to restore the sum with costs—1780, ch. 24, sec. 4,	159
Directions for the number of beds, &c. to be kept, and penalty for omission—1780, ch. 24, sec. 5,	159
No person but the master or principal in the house to keep an ordinary—1780, ch. 24, sec. 6,	160
If an ordinary-keeper shall keep a disorderly house, it may be, on complaint, suppressed by the justices of the court, and during the recess by any two justices of the peace till the meeting of the court—1780, ch. 24, sec. 7,	160
Penalty on persons keeping ordinary after such suspension—1780, ch. 24, sec. 8,	160
Such persons, or others, keeping ordinary without license, to forfeit one thousand pounds of tobacco per month—1780, ch. 24, sec. 9,	160