NEWSPAPERS OF GENERAL CIRCULATION

As used in any law, ordinance, resolution, decree, or order of court the term "paper," "newspaper," "newspaper in general circulation," or "newspaper devoted to the dissemination of general news" is defined specifically. It is a publication that (1) has at least four pages; (2) habitually contains news items, legal and general intelligence, reports of current events, editorial comments, advertising matter, and other miscellaneous information of public interest generally found in the ordinary newspaper; (3) is published and distributed by sale at least weekly from an established place of business; (4) has general circulation throughout the community in which it is published; and (5) is entitled to be entered as second-class matter in the United States mail (Code 1957, Art. 1, sec. 28).

Compiled in part from information supplied by The 1986 IMS Directory of Publications, this list does not include collegiate, fraternal, professional, trade, religious, or similar journals.
