

CHAPTER 89.

AN ACT supplemental to and to amend an Act entitled an act to incorporate the Maryland Agricultural and Mechanical Association, passed March nineteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven.

PREAMBLE.—Whereas it was provided by the act incorporating the Maryland Agricultural and Mechanical Association that should the Association at any time dissolve, the Trustees named in said act, or their successors should convey the land purchased with the money by said act appropriated together with all improvements therein made, free from all incumbrances to the State of Maryland, and, Whereas the said money so appropriated was not sufficient to purchase the land and to make the improvements therein and hereto requisite for the purposes of said Association but the City of Baltimore, and many individuals, citizens of Maryland, have paid large amounts to aid the said Association towards making said improvements, and in the aggregate, greatly in excess of the sum so, as aforesaid, appropriated by the State—therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the corporation of the City of Baltimore, and their successors and those citizens of the State of Maryland, or of the United States their heirs, or assigns, who have contributed, or may hereafter contribute to the purchase of land, or to improvements to and upon land for the use of the Maryland Agricultural and Mechanical Association shall in case of a dissolution of said Association be entitled to and receive from the net proceeds of the sale of all land and improvements, or other property now acquired, or hereafter to be acquired by said Association, such sum as the amount of money paid by said corporation, or individual citizen may bear to the aggregate amount contributed by the State of Maryland, the City of Baltimore and the individual citizens respectively.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That in case of dissolution of said Association, the Trustees named in the act to which this act is a supplement and their
