

Time and place of primary.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That each political party in said county which, at the said general election of November, 1903, polled ten per cent. of the entire vote cast in said county, shall give at least fifteen clear days' notice of the time and place of holding said primary in said county or in any election district or voting precinct thereof, and the call for said primary shall be published for at least two weeks in two newspapers published in Anne Arundel County.

Primaries of two different parties cannot be held on same day.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the primaries of two different political parties shall not be held on the same day in any year and the party first inserting its call in two newspapers shall have the preference of the day selected for its primary over any other party; within seven days from the day of the issuance of any call by a political party in said county which, at the said general election of November, 1903, polled ten per cent. of the total vote cast in said county, the Supervisors of Elections for said county shall appoint for each voting place where a primary is to be held three judges of election and two clerks to conduct such primary, and the manner of appointing shall be as follows: Each of the two contesting factions of any party shall, within five days from the call of said primary being first published, file with the Supervisors of Elections of said county the names of two persons for judges and two persons for clerk in each election district or precinct where the primary is to be held, which said persons whose names are so filed shall have been duly registered voters of the election district or precinct where they are to act as judge or clerk for at least three years previous to the day of their appointment, and from the names so filed the said Supervisors of Elections of Anne Arundel County shall elect one judge and clerk from the list submitted by each faction and shall, in addition thereto, select from among the registered voters of said election district or precinct one person as the third judge of said primary, and the three judges so appointed and the two clerks shall conduct the primary election for said district or precinct. The judges so appointed upon the recommendation of any faction shall be appointed from the leading factions actually running candidates and delegates to the county convention at said primary, and upon the neglect, failure or refusal of any faction to file the name for said judges and clerks, then it shall be the duty of the said Supervisors of Elections to make all the appointments from the list of registered voters of the district from which no such list has been received or filed.

Duty of Supervisors of Elections.
