CHAPTER 86.

An Act for the relief of certain distressed Foreigners in Frederick County.

WHEREAS during the past fall, and the current winter, Preamble there have been and are in the city of Frederick and its neighbourhood, a large number of foreigners in a distressed situation, received into the alms-house, and furnished with medicine and the necessaries of life, as the dictates of humanity require: And whereas doubts exist whether under the existing laws the levy court of said county are authorised to levy money to defray the expenses incurred by said trustees for their relief, inasmuch as said foreigners, in legal contemplation, may not be considered residents of the county:

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Levy authorised. That the levy court of Frederick county, at the time of making their next annual levy, be and they are hereby authorised, to levy on the assessable property of said county the amount which the trustees of the poor of said county shall have then expended for the relief of distressed foreigners, in the same manner as the said levy court by the existing laws would be authorised and required to levy the amount aforesaid if the same had been expended by the trustees upon persons whom it was their unquestionable duty to receive into the alms-house, and provide for as the poor of the county.
