CHAPTER 222.

Passed Mar. 26, 1836 An act to Incorporate the Greensborough Manufacturing Company.

Preamble

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, that William Hughlett, being proprietor of certain lands in Caroline county, at which there is valuable water power sufficient for the operation of all kinds of manufacturing machinery, is desirous of engaging in such manufacturing operations at the said place, and for the purpose of being enabled so to do on a more extensive scale, and with a larger amount of capital, proposes to take in other partners at such valuation of the land and water power, as may be agreed upon between him and his associates, and that there are several individuals who have signified their desire to unite with the said William Hughlett, by subscribing for stock in the proposed company, and are willing to become partners with him, provided the inconveniences of an unincorporated company consisting of many partners, can be removed by obtaining from the General
