 1860, ch. 271.

3. All marriages made and celebrated in or out of this State prior to March 9, 1860, by and between persons related within the following degrees of affinity, to wit: a man and his niece, or a woman and her nephew, are hereby confirmed and made valid to every intent and purpose from the time of the celebration of such marriages, respectively; and every such marriage shall be held and taken by all courts of this State to be good and sufficient in law to all intents and purposes.

Prior to this section, a marriage between a man and his niece was not ipso facto void, but only voidable. This section is constitutional and wise. Harrison v. State, 22 Md. 482; Grove v. Todd, 41 Md. 644.
