

and deliver it to the Clerk of the Court having original jurisdiction of the misdemeanor described in Section 78A. The said forfeited recognizance shall then become a record of said Court, and shall have the same effect and may be enforced in the same manner as if it had been taken and forfeited by the Court. If the magistrate be satisfied by information and due proof under oath at any time during said two-year period that the defendant has violated the terms of the order, he shall forthwith commit or bail the defendant for the action of the Grand Jury as in other cases.

1916, ch. 637, sec. 78C.

Destroying Property Maliciously.

1917, ch. 9, sec. 100A.

100A. Every person, his aiders or abettors, who shall wilfully and maliciously dynamite, blow up or otherwise wreck, destroy, injure or damage, in whole or in part, or attempt so to do, or conspire or connive thereat, any of the property hereinafter mentioned, shall be guilty of a felony, and shall be subject to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twenty years, or to a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars, or to both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court; provided, however, that nothing in this or the following section shall apply to the crime of arson, or any prosecution therefor.

1917, ch. 9, sec. 100B.

100B. The properties included within the terms of the preceding section are the following:

(a) Any public building, place, structure, waters or other property, real or personal, of any kind or character whatsoever, within this State, belonging to or leased by this State, or any county or municipality thereof; including wharves, piers, locks and docks, bridges, culverts, sewers and highways; conduits, pipe lines, canals, reservoirs, mills, dams, races and other structures, equipment and apparatus used in supplying water to the public or any portion thereof; municipal gas and electric light and power plants; buoys, beacons, lights and water marks; and including, in every case, any and all poles, lines, wires, dynamos, pipes, conduits, stations, connections, materials, supplies, apparatus and equipment of any and every kind connected with any of such property; and including all other public property of every description.
