

of law or any of the rules and regulations of said Board, not inconsistent with law, he shall forthwith be dismissed from his office or employment.

1916, ch. 556, sec. 637.

637. Each prisoner in any of said institutions shall be entitled to a diminution of the period of his confinement under the following rules and regulations:

(1) For each calendar month commencing on the first day of the month next after his arrival at the institution, during which he shall not be guilty of a violation of the discipline or any of the rules thereof, and shall labor with diligence and fidelity, he shall be allowed a deduction of five days from each month of the period of the commitment or sentence.

(2) For each and every violation of the rules and discipline of the institution, or want of fidelity or care in the performance of work, the person therein confined shall not only forfeit all gained time in the month in which such delinquency occurs, but, according to the aggravated nature or frequency of his offense, the Board may deduct a portion of all of his gained time.

638. No member of the State Board of Prison Control, or any employee of said Board, or any Warden, or other employee in connection with any of said institutions, shall be directly or indirectly concerned or interested in any contract, purchase or sale made by said Board, or by its authority or shall accept any reward or gift or any promise of any reward or gift directly or indirectly from any person interested in any contract, purchase or sale made by said Board or by its authority, and every member of said State Board of Prison Control and every employee of said Board and every Warden, and other employee connected with any of said institutions, shall make report to the said Board of all such offenses coming to his knowledge, and a failure or neglect to do so shall be a breach of duty and punishable under this Section. Any person violating any provision of this Section shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $500.

639. No member of said State Board of Prison Control, or any employee of said Board, or any Warden, or other employee connected with any of said institutions, shall accept any reward or gift, or any promises of reward or gift, from any convict in any of said institutions, or from any one on his behalf, or shall receive any devise or bequest, or any promise of devise or bequest, from any such convict, or from any person on his behalf, or shall enter into any contract with any such convict, or with any person on his behalf. All such gifts, rewards, bequests, devises, promises and contracts shall be void; and any person,
