An. Code, 1924, sec. 21. 1914, ch. 800, sec. 21. 1929, ch. 425.

21. Every employer subject to the operation and effect of this Article, who shall insure in the State Accident Fund, shall every four months submit a report to the Commission herein created, according to the regulations and requirements it may prescribe, of his payroll for four months then ending.

Upon the failure of an employer to comply with the requirements of the preceding paragraph of this section, the State Industrial Accident Commission may pass an order cancelling the policy of insurance of any such employer, such cancellation to be effective upon the expiration of ten (10) days after the passage of said Order; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the State Industrial Accident Commission to mail a copy by registered mail of any such Order to the employer at his last known address promptly after the passage thereof.

Any employer who shall, with fraudulent intent, misrepresent to the Commission the amount of payroll upon which the premium under this Article is based, shall be liable to the Commission in ten times the amount of the difference in the premium paid and the amount the employer should have paid. The liability to the Commission under this provision shall be enforced in a civil action in the name of the Commission. All sums collected under this section shall be paid into the State Accident Fund.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 27. 1914, ch. 800, sec. 27. 1916, ch. 597, sec. 27. 1920, ch. 456, sec. 27. 1927, ch. 552.

27. The entire expense of conducting and administering the State Accident Fund, as likewise all other expenses of the State Industrial Accident Commission, shall be paid in the first instance by the State out of the monies appropriated for the maintenance of the State Industrial Accident Commission and the payment of the salaries and expenses of said Commission and its officers and employees. In the month of January, nineteen hundred and eighteen, and annually thereafter in such month the Commission shall ascertain the just expense incurred by the Commission during
