

shall be committed to the jail of said county, and that he will, in all respects, truly and honestly demean himself in his office of keeper of said jail without prejudice, affection, malice, hatred or partiality, so long as he shall continue in said office; and also by entering into a recognizance before the said justice, with two sufficient sureties, in the sum of four hundred dollars, in the usual form, with the condition therewith, "that if the said A. B. do and shall well and faithfully execute and perform the office of keeper of the jail of Queen Anne's county, and find and provide wholesome and sufficient victuals for all and singular the prisoners who shall be committed to the said jail, and keep the several apartments in the said jail clear and free from all manner of filth, and not suffer or permit loose, idle or disorderly persons to frequent the said jail or remain about the same, and do and shall in all respects faithfully demean himself in the said office, without favor, partiality or prejudice, then the said recognizance to be void and of no effect, otherwise to remain in force."

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 18, sec. 177. 1860, Art. 17, sec. 82.

239. In addition to the duties imposed by the laws of this State upon all jailers, it shall be his duty to receive and provide for all manner of persons who may be committed to said jail according to law, and to be obedient to the mittimus of the sheriff of said county, in those cases in which the said sheriff has power to confine by virtue of process or pursuant to the laws of this State.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 18, sec. 178. 1860, Art. 17, sec. 83.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 18, sec. 179. 1918, ch. 226.

241. He shall be entitled to receive for boarding and keeping any prisoner in said jail, such sum per day as the County Commissioners for said county may in their discretion determine, said sum not to be less than fifty cents, nor more than seventy-five cents per day, and to an annual allowance from said county sufficient to furnish fuel for the comfort and benefit of said prisoners.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 18, sec. 180. 1860, Art. 17, sec. 85.

242. He shall, during his continuance in office, be disqualified from holding any ordinary house of entertainment, and from retailing spirituous liquors.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 18, sec. 181. 1860, Art. 17, sec. 86.

243. He shall not sell spirituous liquors, nor cause or suffer them to be sold, to any of the prisoners confined in said jail, or to any person for their use, and upon conviction thereof he shall forfeit the sum of ten dollars.
