

if the State's attorney for said county shall, before the trial of such alleged offense, pray a jury trial on the part of the State, it shall be the duty of any such justice to commit such alleged offender for trial in the circuit court, at its session, if it be then in session, or at its next session, if it be not then in session, and to return said commitment or recognizance, with the names and residences of the witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, forthwith to the clerk of said court; and the justice before whom the case is tried, shall inform the person charged of his right to a jury trial; and on receiving the recognizance sent up by the justice, the clerk shall place the same on the appeal docket, and issue subpoena for the witnesses named by the justice, and the case shall be tried on the information or warrant as if on appeal; and if on waiver of jury trial before the justice, and trial before him, either party shall feel aggrieved, he or the State may appeal to the circuit court, upon the accused recognizing with security approved by the justice.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 23, sec. 58. 1884, ch. 510.

116. Constables in the said counties shall be entitled to the fees prescribed by law for the particular services rendered by them under the preceding section; and the said justices shall be entitled to charge for their respective services in said criminal cases the following fees: For issuing each State writ, twenty-five cents; for summoning all the witnesses on both sides in any case, fifty cents; for each trial, one dollar; for every commitment, twenty-five cents; for every release, twenty-five cents; for taking recognizances in each case reported to the circuit court, twenty-five cents each; for each attachment for contempt, twenty-five cents.

117. The aforesaid fees of said constables and justices for said counties shall be taxed against and paid by the party against whom judgment shall be rendered, unless he or she be discharged therefrom by due course of law; if such party against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same, such fees shall be paid by the county wherein said judgment was rendered; and all fines and penalties received by any justice under the provisions of Section 115, shall be accounted for and wholly paid without abatement or deduction therefrom by such justice, to the county commissioners of the county wherein they are collected, for the use of said county; and no part of any fine or penalty enforced or collected under said section shall be paid to any informer.

118. Every Justice of the Peace for Wicomico County, shall report to the County Commissioners of Wicomico County, on the first Monday of January, April, July and October, in each year hereafter, every criminal case before him, giving in said report, name of criminal, crime, date of trial, finding, fees of self, name and fees of constable or other officer, names and fees of witnesses and all forfeiture of recognizance in cases
