

vide by ordinance for the inspection and regulation of house drainage and sewer connections and to prescribe the kind of material and quality thereof of which said connection shall be made.

And the laying, building, opening, enlarging, regulating, paving, repairing and maintaining of any sewer, drain or gutter shall be considered as a public improvement within the meaning of Section 309 of this subtitle.

1908, ch. 310, sec. 158-I (p. 1122).

299. The Mayor and Council of Salisbury shall cause an enrollment to be made of every male citizen over the age of twenty-one years who does not pay taxes, and all such non-taxpayers shall be compelled to work on the streets or alleys of said city, under the supervision of the street supervisor, at least one and not more than two days in each year, or furnish a substitute. If any such person, after being notified in writing by said supervisor to do so at least one day before the time named for him to appear, shall fail to appear at the place named in the notice or furnish a substitute, or pay one dollar in lieu thereof, on or before the day set for his appearance, unless excused for good cause by said supervisor, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction before a justice of the peace, shall be fined not less than two dollars and stand committed until the fine and costs are paid. All fines under this section to go to the Mayor and Council of Salisbury for city purposes.

1908, ch. 310, sec. 158J (p. 1122).

300. The Mayor and Council shall cause the police of said city, and for that purpose may divide said city in sections, to make, immediately after the first day of May in each year, a complete list of every male person over the age of twenty-one years of age, living in the corporate limits of said city, which list shall contain full name, age and residence of the person. Should anyone refuse to give said officers, or either of them, the desired information, or give a wrong answer to any question asked them, they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction before a justice of the peace, be fined not less than one dollar and stand committed until the fine and costs are paid. All fines hereunder to be paid to the Mayor and Council of Salisbury for use of city.

1908, ch. 310, sec. 158K (p. 1122). 1910, ch. 213 (p. 1188).

301. The Mayor and Council may contract with any corporation, firm or person for the lighting of the city or part thereof, either with electricity, gas or by such means as they may deem proper; and for water for use at fires, or other city purposes; or may supply such light or water themselves; provided no contract so entered into shall be for a longer period than three years. And the said Mayor and Council may provide by ordinance for the collection and removal of filth, garbage or any matter or thing that may be or may become dangerous or injurious to the health or comfort of the inhabitants of Salisbury, and may by ordinance contract for the collection and removal of same, or may have same removed or any
