

TRADE COMMISSION.

1920, ch. 30, sec. 1. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 769.

769. That there be a commission to be known as the Baltimore County Trade Commission. Said commission shall consist of so many members as the County Commissioners of Baltimore County in their discretion shall deem best and such members shall be appointed by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County for such period not extending beyond the term of the County Commissioners making said appointments as said County Commissioners in their discretion deem expedient and said members so appointed shall serve without compensation.

1920, ch. 30. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 770.

770. The said commission shall secure, digest, tabulate and put in some readily and conveniently available form all such data, facts, and other matters concerning, connected with or relating to the physical, political, social, and governmental character of Baltimore County and all parts thereof, its industrial and commercial resources and advantages in such available form that the information so gathered may readily be brought to the attention of persons interested. Said commission shall also inform and advise itself of the methods which will be most efficient in bringing to the attention of persons not familiar with them the advantages offered by Baltimore County to commercial and industrial enterprises locating there, and the commission is authorized by and with the consent and at the direction of the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, but in no other way to employ assistants and pay such compensation therefor as the said County Commissioners may in such order direct.

1920, ch. 30. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 771.

771. The County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall make such expenditures of the public funds in aid of the purposes of the Baltimore County Trades Commission provided for in the preceding paragraphs of this bill as may in their judgment be proper.

TRADER'S LICENSE.

1900, ch. 218. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 424. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 631. 1928, sec. 772.

772. No person or resident conducting business in Baltimore County shall sell any goods or merchandise whatever in Baltimore County unless he shall first take out the license now prescribed by law, and no person not residing in Baltimore, Carroll, Howard, Anne Arundel and Harford Counties and not paying said license, whether a dealer, merchant, store-keeper, huckster or trader, selling or offering for sale any merchandise except fish, fruits and vegetables, except to dealers, shall be permitted to sell any goods or merchandise from wagons in said county without having first obtained a license therefor from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County and having paid therefor the sum of fifty dollars to
