

the manner now provided by law, six of whom shall be residents of the state of Maryland, and one of the District of Columbia.

Ibid. s. 5.
Powers of said
board.

149. The said board of trustees hereinbefore provided for, shall possess the same and like powers and authority, with the trustees authorized to be appointed by the original acts to which this is amendatory.

Ibid. s. 6
Visitors to said
college.

150. The said board of trustees shall have power and authority to appoint and select visitors for said institution, one from each county and two from the city of Baltimore, with authority to attend the meetings of said trustees, but without the right of voting in the management of the said Maryland Agricultural College.

Ibid s 7
Sum reserved
to be paid into treasury.

151. A sum of money not exceeding ten per cent. upon the amount received by this state, under the provisions of the act of congress, of eighteen hundred and sixty-two, chapter one hundred and thirty, which is authorized to be expended for the purchase of lands, for sites or experimental farms, is hereby expressly reserved and set apart, to be paid into the treasury of the state, to reimburse the said state in part, for the amount appropriated to the said Maryland Agricultural College, by this act; and that so much of the act of eighteen hundred and sixty-five, chapter one hundred and seventy-eight, as is inconsistent with this section of this act, is hereby repealed.

What inconsistent herewith
in 1865, c. 178,
repealed.

In force from February 7, 1866.

1864, c. 128 enacts the following:

1864, c. 128
Annual sums to
be paid by treasurer to county
commissioners
for public school fund.

152. The treasurer of this state upon the warrant of the comptroller, shall hereafter pay annually on the first day of April of every year, succeeding the passage of this act, to the county commissioners of the several counties hereafter mentioned, the sum of four hundred dollars respectively to be applied by said county commissioners to the public school fund