

ELECTIONS.

1861, c. 81 adds the following :

1861, c. 81.
Place of holding in election district, No 6.

59. All elections, hereafter to be held in the sixth election district of Prince George's county, shall be held in the village of Long Old Fields, in said district, at such place as the judge of elections shall appoint.

In force from August 1, 1861.

JAIL.

1866, c. 99 repeals 1864, c. 55 which authorized the repair or re-building of the jail of Prince George's county and provides, that the commissioners and the state's attorney of Prince George's county are authorized, in their discretion, to re-build or repair the county jail of said county, and that they shall have power, if deemed necessary by them, to sell and convey the present jail building and lot of ground, either at public or private sale, and to purchase any other site proper for the location of a new jail; or to repair or re-build the present jail, in whole or in part, in their discretion, and in case they shall decide to sell the present jail and lot aforesaid, the proceeds shall be applied by them toward the purchase of another lot and the other improvements hereby authorized; provided, that the whole cost of executing this act shall not exceed eight thousand dollars. That the said commissioners and state's attorney are empowered to enter into any contracts that may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this act. That any sum heretofore levied under the act of eighteen hundred and sixty-four, chapter fifty-five, shall be payable by the collectors of said county, in whose hands the same was placed, to the order of said county commissioners, and shall be applied by them to the purpose of this act; and said county commissioners shall, in addition to such sum make such further and additional levies in the years eighteen hundred and sixty-six and eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, as may be necessary to carry out the foregoing provisions.
