

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

1866, c. 136 repeals 1862, c. 33 and 1864, c. 255 and enacts the following as a substitute for section 75 :

75. The clerk to the county commissioners for Queen Anne's county, shall receive annually as a compensation for his services, such sum as the county commissioners may deem proper, not exceeding four hundred dollars, and the said clerk is hereby empowered to administer an oath or affirmation to any account to any person presenting a claim to the commissioners, against the county; but said clerk shall not administer such oath or affirmation in any other place than in this office, and he shall be allowed the usual fee of a justice of the peace for the same services.

1866, c. 136
Compensation of clerk.

Oath to be administered by him.

In force from January 10, 1866.

1864, c. 253 adds the following to follow section 75 :

76. The county commissioners of Queen Anne's county may levy on the assessable property of Queen Anne's county, for the use of the commissioners of the town of Centreville, annually, such sum of money as in their judgment may be just and equitable, to assist the said town commissioners to keep the roads and streets in said town in proper repair and order; the same to be paid to the proper officer of the town commissioners, who are hereby invested with the control thereof.

1864, c. 253
County commissioners empowered to levy for repairing roads and streets of Centreville

In force from March 10, 1864.

JAIL.

1867, c. 292 provides, that the county commissioners for Queen Anne's county are hereby empowered to contract for and superintend, or in their discretion, to appoint some suitable person or persons to superintend the building of a new Jail on the public ground in Centreville, and for furnishing the Jail when so erected with all the necessary furniture for the detention and comfort of prisoners confined therein. That the county commissioners for Queen Anne's county are hereby authorized and required to levy upon the assessable property of said county to an amount not