

justice of the peace of said county in the name of the state, one-half for the use of the school fund of said county, the other half for the use of the informer, and if any boat or vessel while anchored or placed in the said river contrary to this act shall be collided with and damaged by any inward or outward bound vessel the owner or owners thereof shall not be entitled to recover for any such loss or injury, but this act and the violation thereof shall be a full justification of such inward or outward bound vessel so colliding.

Action of damages.

In force from March 12, 1867.

LUMBER INSPECTION ON POCOMOKE RIVER.

See 1867, c. 364 under Public Local Laws, Art. XXIII, Worcester county, providing for lumber inspection and wood cording on Pocomoke river.

OYSTERS.

1867, c. 129 repeals and re-enacts sections 94, 95 and 97 as follows: .

94. It shall be lawful for the citizens of said county to catch or take oysters with a scoop, drag or dredge in any of the waters of said county, not parcel of any creek, cove, river or inlet, upon obtaining license therefor as hereinafter directed.

1867, c. 129.
How and when oysters may be taken.

95. The clerk of the circuit court for said county upon application of any citizen of said county shall issue a license to such citizen, authorizing him to take or catch oysters with scoops, drags or dredges in the waters of said county, subject to the provisions of this law, for one year from the date of said license, for which said license the citizen applying shall pay to the said clerk the sum of ten dollars; provided, that the citizen so applying shall have first satisfied the said clerk that he has obtained from the comptroller of the state license to take or catch oysters in the waters of the Chesapeake Bay, as required by article seventy-one of the public general laws; and provided also, that said license shall not authorize

When clerk to issue license.

PROVISOS.