

the taking or catching oysters between the first days of June and September in each year as forbidden by said article seventy-one of the code.

Penalty.

97. Any person taking oysters within the waters of said county with a scoop, drag or dredge without license, or who is not a citizen of said county, or otherwise, contrary to any law of this state, shall be subject to all the penalties provided by law against the illegal taking of oysters in this state.

In force from March 13, 1867.

PRINCESS ANNE.

1867, c. 183 repeals sections 102, 103, 104 and all sections to 136 inclusive, and 1861, c. 98 and enacts the following in their stead :

1867, c. 183.
Incorporated, power and privileges.

102. The inhabitants of the town of Princess Anne in Somerset county are hereby made and declared a body corporate, with all the privileges of a body corporate, by the name of the commissioners of Princess Anne, and by that name may sue and be sued, have and use a common seal, and have perpetual succession.

Election of commissioners

103. The free male white citizens of said town who have resided therein six months preceding any election, and all free male white citizens residing in the county of Somerset and owning real estate within the said town limits shall, on the third Monday in March in each year, (beginning with the third Monday of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven,) elect five persons to be the commissioners of the town as aforesaid, which persons to be eligible must have resided in the state one year and within the town limits six months.

Elections, where held

Judges of election,

104. The first election under this act shall be held at the court-house of said county, and the judges thereof shall be three in number and be designated and appointed by the clerk of the circuit court for Somerset county, who shall swear them as other judges of election are sworn and require them to sign the test-book as other officers of said county