

Vacancies

shall appoint from time to time, during the continuance of said institution, three persons, residents as aforesaid, for a full term of two years, so that the board of managers shall be divided into three classes, one-third of whom shall go out of office at the end of every two years; and shall also have the power, in the case of any vacancy occurring in any of said classes, from death, resignation, or removal from the State, to appoint a person or persons to fill such vacancy or vacancies for the balance of the term of said class.

Id s 4
1874, c 233
Who empowered to purchase grounds
and contract for erection of buildings, etc

101. All moneys hereinafter provided for in this act, for the purchase of land, and the erection and construction of necessary buildings, shall be paid by the treasurer of the State, on the warrant of the comptroller, to the board of public works and attorney-general of the State, who are hereby authorized and empowered to purchase suitable grounds, and to contract for the construction and erection of the necessary buildings for the said institution; and who shall, before any contract is entered into by them for the said construction and erection, have proper plans and specifications of said buildings prepared, and invite proposals for said work; provided, however, no contract shall be entered into by them, unless the whole cost of the purchase of the land, construction of the buildings, and other necessary expenses, shall not exceed the amount hereinafter appropriated; and, provided further, that no contract shall be entered into, except with a responsible party, who shall be required to give such bond as they may approve, in the penalty of one hundred thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the same.

To invite proposals.

Limit.

Bond.

Id s 5
House of Correction State
loan.

102. For the purpose of purchasing the necessary land, and erecting, completing, and equipping the building or buildings of the said House of Correction, a fund is hereby created, to be called "The House of Correction State Loan," and that the treasurer of the State is hereby authorized and directed to issue certificates of debt or bonds of the State, to an amount not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, to be countersigned by the comptroller in the name and on behalf of the State of Maryland, which bonds or certificates of debt, together with the lands, buildings and other property of said House of Correction, shall be exempt from State, county, or municipal taxation, and shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually from the first days of January and July of each year, and be redeemable in not less than ten nor more than fifteen years, at the pleasure of the State, and which said bonds or certificates shall be sold for not less than their par value, exclusively of all commissions, and the proceeds passed to the credit of said House of Correction State Loan, and the same to the extent of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars are hereby appropriated for the purpose of paying for the land, the erection, completion and equipment of said buildings of the said House of Correction.