

APPRENTICES— Continued.	ART.	SEC.	PAGE
Court shall not bind children for whose support security is given.. . . . .	6	13	53
Citation for children to be brought before court.. . . . .	6	14	54
Term of apprenticeship; children to be taught.. . . . .	6	15	54
Two justices of the peace may bind out children.. . . . .	6	16	54
Contract to be approved by orphans' court.. . . . .	6	16	54
Trustees of the poor may bind out children.. . . . .	6	17	54
Such indentures to be lodged with register of wills within thirty days.. . . . .	6	18	55
In recess of orphans' court, trustees of the poor may cite children and bind them out.. . . . .	6	19	55
Father may bind out his children . . . . .	6	20	55
Such indentures to be lodged with register of wills within thirty days . . . . .	6	20	55
Manufacturers may take apprentices.. . . . .	6	21	56
Terms of such contracts to be recorded.. . . . .	6	21	56
Directors of penitentiary, managers of house of correction and house of refuge, may bind out children of female convicts.. . . . .	6	22	56
Such indentures to be recorded.. . . . .	6	22	56
Apprentices in the country to work in harvest fields.. . . . .	6	23	56
Enticement away of apprentices.. . . . .	6	24	56
Encouragement of apprentices to disobedience or absence. . . . .	6	24	56
Court may compel performance of partly executed apprenticeship.. . . . .	6	25	57
Compensation to master for loss of service by absconding apprentice . . . . .	6	26	57
Apprentice to remain in service of widow of master, when . . . . .	6	27	57
Widow, with approval of orphans' court, may assign unexpired term to third party.. . . . .	6	28	58
Widow may keep in her service, or deliver up to orphans' court, female apprentice of her husband.. . . . .	6	29	58
Valuation of unexpired term, where father's consent to the widow's taking the apprentice cannot be had, how and when made . . . . .	6	30	58