

- | | |
|--|---|
| 464. Elections, how to be held. 465. Vacancy in burgess or commissioners, how filled. 466. Oath of burgess and commissioners. 467. Meetings of. 468. Clerk, appointment of. 469. Clerk to enter ordinances in a public book; ordinances, how posted. 470. What by-laws and ordinances commissioners authorized to pass. 471. Assessment; tax to be collected by burgess; power of. 472. Power of commissioners over streets, lanes and alleys in town. 473. Footways, grading, paving and repairing of, cost, by whom to be paid. 474. Tenant to pay cost of fixing footway when owner is a non-resi- | dent; cost to be deducted from rent due by. 475. Persons refusing to have footways fixed, burgess and commissioners to have same done; cost of, how recovered. 476. Burgess to see that ordinances are carried out; jurisdiction of. 477. To act as treasurer of corporation, bond and duties of. 478. Compensation of, as treasurer and burgess. 479. Annual report by. 480. Persons failing to pay fines imposed for violation of ordinances, to be committed to jail, no fine to exceed $20; right of appeal allowed. 481. Fines and forfeitures, how recovered; commitments, by whom to be signed. |
|--|---|

ALMSHOUSE.

1886, ch. 3.

1. On the second Monday of February of every second year, accounting from the year eighteen hundred and eighty-six, the county commissioners of Frederick county shall appoint five discreet and competent persons, residents of said county, two of whom shall be of an opposite political party from that of a majority of said county commissioners, to be commissioners of charities and corrections, who shall hold office for the space of two years from the second Monday of February of their appointment, and until their successors are appointed and qualified; and should any person appointed by the county commissioners to be commissioners of charities and corrections fail or neglect to qualify for thirty days, the county commissioners shall fill the vacancy.

1884, ch. 242.

2. The commissioners shall be and are declared a body corporate by the name and title of the "Commissioners of Charities and