(Signed,) ———,

Inspector of Oysters.

And any violation of this section by any captain or other person in charge of any vessel shall be a misdemeanor, and he shall be fined the sum of one hundred dollars for every such offense.

1894, ch. 380.

10 A. It shall be the duty of any packer, commission man or other purchaser to deduct from the purchase price of every cargo or portion of a cargo, which contains more than five per cent. of undersized oysters and shells, as ascertained in accordance with the provisions of sections 9 and 10 of this article, a sum of money representing the value of the excess of undersized oysters and shells above five per cent., and it shall be the duty of any packer, commission man or other purchaser to pay the sum, so deducted by him, to the State of Maryland, which money shall become a part of the "Oyster Fund;" and every packer, commission man or other purchaser shall monthly make a sworn statement of the amount of money so deducted by him, which statement shall be forwarded on the first day of the month next succeeding the month in which such deduction shall have been made, to the treasurer of the State; and in default of said payment and statement as herein provided, said packer, commission man or other purchaser shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to the county or city jail for thirty days; and in the event of any one making a false oath, the offender shall be indictable and punishable as is now provided for the crime of perjury.

Ibid.

11. Any packer, commission man or boatman who shall conspire or agree with any other person to evade any of the provisions of this article, or who shall knowingly connive at or participate in such violation, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction before any court or justice of the peace having jurisdiction shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the
