the same shall be so in arrears, such failure and neglect shall be deemed to amount to and shall constitute a forfeiture of the charter of such corporation, and said charter shall be decreed to be so forfeited and annulled ipso facto; and any and all corporate powers exercised by any such building or homestead association formed after January first, 1890, and prior to the twenty-first day of March, 1894, are hereby given validity and full force.

1894, ch. 114.

88 J. The certificate of the comptroller, under the seal of his office, shall be prima facie evidence of the amount of bonus due as aforesaid, to entitle the State to judgment for said bonus and costs of suit.

Ibid

88 K. No corporation incorporated prior to the 21st day of March, 1894, shall in any manner be relieved or released from the payment of any bonus due and owing by it or which shall have become due and payable by it prior to such date, under the provisions of chapter five hundred and thirty six of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of the year eighteen hundred and ninety, excepting, nevertheless, such classes of corporations as will be exempt from the operation of the five preceding sections, which said classes of corporations heretofore formed shall be exempt from the operation of said five sections in like manner as such classes of corporations hereafter to be formed.

1892, ch. 567.

93. Each member of the appeal tax court shall receive two hundred dollars annually for the services required in the four preceding sections of this article, and the register of the city of Baltimore the sum of three hundred dollars for the services therein required of him; the said sums to be paid by the treasurer on the warrant of the comptroller.

Collateral Inheritance Tax.

1894, ch. 493.

115 A. Whenever an interest in any estate, real, personal or mixed, less than an absolute interest, shall be devised or bequeathed to or for the use and benefit of any person or object,
