

General Duties of Clerks.

1890, ch. 383.

2 A. Whenever any auditor's report of distribution of the proceeds of sale of real or personal property shall have been ratified by any of the courts of this State, such audit and ratification shall be forthwith recorded by the clerk of said court in a book or books provided for that purpose, the cost of said record to be taxed in the costs of the case, and a certified copy of said record shall be evidence. This section shall not apply to Somerset, Baltimore or Calvert counties.

1894, ch. 513.

20 A. Said clerk, whenever requested in writing to do so by the trustee, attorney or party in interest, shall record among the chancery, judicial or other proper record books of his office, such bill of complaint, decree, order of court, trustee's report, auditor's account and report or other paper filed in a cause in his office, although the title to land may not be involved therein, provided the cost of such recording be first paid or provided for.

Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

1894, ch. 298.

40. The Clerk of the Court of Appeals shall have the custody of all the records and papers in the office of the late Court of Appeals, of the former Court of Appeals, and of the General Court. He shall receive a salary of $3,000 per annum, for which sum, to be paid out of the treasury, the Comptroller of the State shall draw his warrant. Said clerk may appoint, subject to the approval of the judges of the Court of Appeals, such deputy clerks as the requirements of this office shall necessitate, who shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the said judges and clerk, and shall receive such salaries as the said judges and clerk may determine to be just and proper compensation for their services, to be paid in the same manner as is hereinbefore provided for the payment of the salary of the said Clerk of the Court of Appeals. The said Clerk of the Court of Appeals shall render an account, as now prescribed by law, of all fees, emoluments and receipts of his said office, and shall pay the same to the Treasurer of the State, as now required by law. The Clerk of the Court of Appeals shall provide his office with such record
