the said charter or instrument, as if the same had originally been made a part thereof; and any corporation heretofore formed under the provisions of this article for the creation or maintenance of educational associations, universities, colleges, academies, cemetary companies, hospitals or asylums, the existence of which, by the terms of its charter, is limited to a period of forty years or less, is authorized to amend its charter, so as to provide for perpetual existence.

1898, ch. 228.

69. No loan of money shall be made by any such corporation to any stockholder therein; and if any such loan shall be made to any stockholder, the officer or officers who shall make it or who shall assent thereto shall, in the event of the insolvency of such corporation, be jointly and severally liable for all the debts of the corporation contracted before the making of said loan to the extent of double the amount of any loss arising out of the said loan; this section shall not, however, apply to any building or homestead association or any association for the loan of money on real or personal property, or to any savings institution or other corporation receiving money on deposit or authorized by its charter to receive money on deposit.

85 A. Every safe deposit, trust, guaranty, loan and fidelity company or association incorporated under any law of this or any other State, district or territory, the United States or any foreign country receiving money on deposit or assuming any obligations in this State, shall semi-annually on the last business days of June and December, respectively, or within ten days thereafter, in each and every year, make a full report in writing of the affairs and condition of such corporation at the close of business on the last days of June and December, respectively, in each year, to the Treasurer of Maryland, verified by oath, in such form and by such officers of said respective corporations as said treasurer may designate, and such report shall state the amount loaned upon bond and mortgage together with a list of such bonds and mortgages, and the location of the mortgaged premises, as have not previously been reported, and also a list of such bonds and mortgages previously reported, as have since been wholly or in part paid, and the
